

It's not too late to join the WPS Kids' Power Run

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 12, 2009

(Green Bay, WI) Children 10 and younger are gearing up for the WPS Kids' Power Run – held annually in conjunction with the Cellcom Green Bay Marathon. Nearly 350 children are signed up for the non-competitive, half-mile run which takes place Saturday, May 16 at the Wisconsin Public Service corporate offices in downtown Green Bay.

Pre-registration is closed, but children may sign up from 8 to 9 a.m. Saturday at WPS, 700 N. Adams St. The registration fee is $10 per child.

The run begins at 9 a.m., and food, refreshments and games will be available throughout the morning. An awards ceremony is scheduled for 10 a.m. Awards will be presented to the top three boys and girls in seven age groups.

Participants will receive a race bib, t-shirt, goodie bag and finisher medal while supplies last. Parents are encouraged to run with their children, and the route will be safely monitored by several course marshals.
